

Thanks for the download!

CHECK OUT THESE BLOG POSTS THAT HIGHLIGHT GRAMMAR LESSON IDEAS:

HIGH SCHOOL GRAMMAR:
meaningful discussions & activities

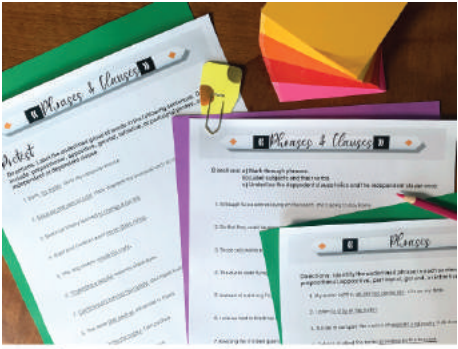

how to grade
STUDY ESSAYS

MIDDLE SCHOOL GRAMMAR
hands-on, creative, and fun

These are other language arts activities:

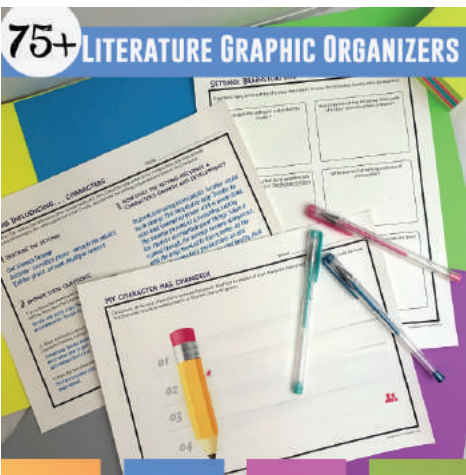

CLAUSES & PHRASES
digital & print activities

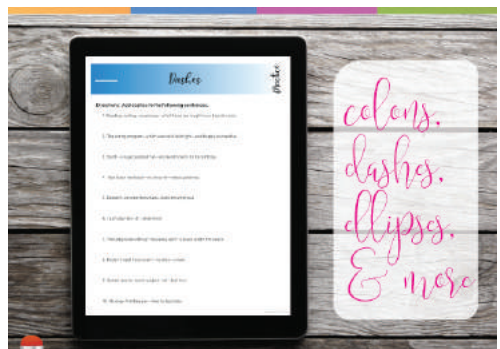

WRITE A MEMORABLE CHARACTER
LESSON PLAN FOR GOOGLE CLASSROOM

PARTS OF SPEECH DIGITAL ACTIVITIES
presentation & note sheets

75+ LITERATURE GRAPHIC ORGANIZERS

*colons,
dashes,
ellipses,
& more*

PUNCTUATION SERIES

EIGHT PARTS OF SPEECH BUNDLE
digital and print

LANGUAGE ARTS CLASSROOM, LLC

Thanks for the download!

PLEASE READ THIS TERMS OF USE TO PROTECT MY WORK AND LICENSING PERMISSIONS.

I appreciate your support and want you to be happy with your purchase. If for any reason you are unhappy, need a change in font/sizing, or would like a different format, please email me at lauralee@languageartsclassroom.com

I have a license for images, fonts, and graphics. Therefore:

Purchase of this product is for use by one classroom/ one homeschool.

Additional licenses for schools or departments may be purchased (at a discounted rate) on TpT.

This material may not be posted on the Internet or disseminated in any other form for general audiences.

You MAY share this document with parents and students for home-use via print-outs, email, or Google Classroom.

TIPS:

✈️ If you leave feedback on a purchase, you also earn credit with TpT for future purchases.

✈️ Follow me on TpT. (Click the green star.) You'll get fast updates this way.

✈️ Would you like two dozen free downloads? Subscribing to my blog has benefits! Sign-up, and I'll send you directions to visit my subscriber-only library.

As always, please contact me with any questions or concerns!

Thanks again,

Lauralee, Language Arts Classroom

Thanks for the download!

Please make a copy of this:

<https://docs.google.com/presentation/u/1/d/19tdU9dh-FrInsvnelhEhuUkGfWqlypncrO2njjZam70/copy>

You will be asked to make a copy. Make a copy, and you will have the Slides presentation in your Google Drive. Share with students via email or Google Classroom!

I typically use the first worksheet as a diagnostic (pre-test), and the final worksheet as the final test.

I have also made those into self-grading Google forms. If you would like self-grading quizzes, please make copies of those.

Diagnostic:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/u/1/d/18NKG-PU0wPm5rFvBGUK2a1cMN209U-ubtQVyfS7mx7c/copy>

Final assessment:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/u/1/d/14WXAgrbn4qulyVDQ4pioeo0LJJYOpK8N5RZM9veze4l/copy>

Please email me with questions: lauralee@languageartsclassroom.com

Types of Sentences

Let's warm-up!

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer.

1. My mom planted the flower beds beside the house and forgot to water them.

- a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

2. The ground was dry because the area had no rain in weeks.

- a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

3. During the summer in my state, it seldom rains.

- a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

4. Last Saturday, the sky turned gray, and the air became heavy.

- a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

5. Soon, the rain pounded the windows and covered the ground; I'm sure that my mom's flowers were pleased.

- a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

Types of Sentences

Let's warm-up!

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer.

1. My mom planted the flower beds beside the house and forgot to water them.

- A a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

2. The ground was dry because the area had no rain in weeks.

- C a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

3. During the summer in my state, it seldom rains.

- B a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

4. Last Saturday, the sky turned gray, and the air became heavy.

- B a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

5. Soon, the rain pounded the windows and covered the ground; I'm sure that my mom's flowers were pleased.

- C a. Phrase.
- b. Independent clause.
- c. Dependent clause.

Types of Sentences

Break down sentences!

Directions: Label each subject and verb. Then decide if the sentence is simple or compound.

1. Tylin and Kiptyn bought tickets for the concert.
2. For the cookout, dad grilled chicken, and mom sliced vegetables.
3. Last night, Drew had ice cream and brownies for dessert.
4. Vicki ordered a milkshake, and George ordered chocolate cake.
5. Not only should we wear sunscreen, but also drink water.
6. Tom put the decorations in the attic.
7. Robyn bought new shoes, but she forgot to pack them.
8. On a farm, everyone has chores.
9. Our flight was delayed, so we ate dinner at the airport.
10. At the party, the ball pit and jumpy house were the popular attractions for little kids.

Types of Sentences

Simple, compound, and complex.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, or complex.

1. Instead of running, Kylie went to a yoga class.
2. Jasmine apologized, for she made a mistake.
3. Sami brought chips and dips to the luncheon.
4. As Joe washed the cat, the dog howled.
5. When the teacher wrote on the board, students took notes.
6. The earbuds have a twist in the cord.
7. While Tim napped, his dog ate the trash.
8. Connor arranged the place settings, Karner stirred the lemonade, and Laci folded the napkins as swans.
9. Either bring a blanket, or plan to buy one.
10. Until practice ends, please pay attention.
11. Jonah arrived a bit early for his job interview.
12. Abi studied late into the night because she had a test the next day.
13. Since Cara won, she has had more responsibilities.
14. We have both bug spray and sunscreen, for we will be outside all day.
15. Cashlyn reads novels, and her little sister prefers graphic novels.

Types of Sentences

Simple, compound, and complex.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, or complex.

1. Instead of running, Kylie went to a yoga class.
simple
2. Jasmine apologized, for she made a mistake.
compound
3. Sami brought chips and dips to the luncheon.
simple
4. As Joe washed the cat, the dog howled.
complex
5. When the teacher wrote on the board, students took notes.
complex
6. The earbuds have a twist in the cord.
simple
7. While Tim napped, his dog ate the trash.
complex
8. Connor arranged the place settings, Karner stirred the lemonade, and Laci folded the napkins as swans.
compound
9. Either bring a blanket, or plan to buy one.
compound
10. Until practice ends, please pay attention.
complex
11. Jonah arrived a bit early for his job interview.
simple
12. Abi studied late into the night because she had a test the next day.
complex
13. Since Cara won, she has had more responsibilities.
complex
14. We have both bug spray and sunscreen, for we will be outside all day.
compound
15. Cashlyn reads novels, and her little sister prefers graphic novels.
compound

Types of Sentences

Simple, compound, and complex.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, or complex.

1. As soon as the race began, the sky turned dark.
2. Jack gave his dad the best birthday: a prepaid round of golf.
3. In the middle of the night, Tom needed to get a mug of warm tea, but he still didn't fall back asleep.
4. I do need the help you offered.
5. The dog ate dinner, drank water, and took a nap.
6. Jane and her mom shopped for a dance dress and shoes after the school day ended.
7. Jon spent too much time at the baseball game, and his mom was angry.
8. The picture frame sat on the mantel.
9. Preschoolers have fun at the library's story hour, and parents enjoy the break.
10. The inside of the book jacket revealed an interview with the author.

Types of Sentences

Simple, compound, and complex.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, or complex.

1. As soon as the race began, the sky turned dark.

complex

2. Jack gave his dad the best birthday: a prepaid round of golf.

simple

3. In the middle of the night, Tom needed to get a mug of warm tea, but he still didn't fall back asleep.

compound

4. I do need the help you offered.

complex

5. The dog ate dinner, drank water, and took a nap.

simple

6. Jane and her mom shopped for a dance dress and shoes after the school day ended.

complex

7. Jon spent too much time at the baseball game, and his mom was angry.

compound

8. The picture frame sat on the mantel.

simple

9. Preschoolers have fun at the library's story hour, and parents enjoy the break.

compound

10. The inside of the book jacket revealed an interview with the author.

simple

Types of Sentences

Look at conjunctions.

Directions: Circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence. Then decide if the sentence is complex or compound-complex.

1. Students played the vocabulary game, and then they studied their flashcards because the test is tomorrow.
2. Although Kevin has money, he is not spending it.
3. Since the storm struck last week, our computer hasn't worked; unfortunately, we must buy a new one.
4. Jen left her bracelet; however, the housekeeper found it when she cleaned the hotel room.
5. Ben brushed his teeth before his mom took him to the dentist.
6. Students across the country bring cell phones to school; unfortunately, many lose their belongings during breaks as people rush the halls.
7. We will walk to school unless it rains.
8. Drake watched the movie since he had free time.
9. Jon and Molly bought the chair; even though their apartment is small, they will find a spot for it.
10. Tom will sweep the floor once Jane moves the packages.

Types of Sentences

Look at conjunctions.

Directions: Circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence. Then decide if the sentence is complex or compound-complex.

1. Students played the vocabulary game, and then they studied their flashcards because the test is tomorrow.

compound-complex

2. Although Kevin has money, he is not spending it.

complex

3. Since the storm struck last week, our computer hasn't worked; unfortunately, we must buy a new one.

compound-complex

4. Jen left her bracelet; however, the housekeeper found it when she cleaned the hotel room.

compound-complex

5. Ben brushed his teeth before his mom took him to the dentist.

complex

6. Students across the country bring cell phones to school; unfortunately, many lose their belongings during breaks as people rush the halls.

compound-complex

7. We will walk to school unless it rains.

complex

8. Drake watched the movie since he had free time.

complex

9. Jon and Molly bought the chair; even though their apartment is small, they will find a spot for it.

compound-complex

10. Tom will sweep the floor once Jane moves the packages.

complex

Types of Sentences

Sentence structures.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Whenever the bell rings, everyone files into the cafeteria, and the workers assemble food trays.
2. The mail won't come on Sunday, so you will have to wait for Monday.
3. My family is running late; even if we were ready, we still don't have a present for the party.
4. After Allison cleaned her room, her mom gave her spending money, and she went to eat with friends.
5. Ashley bought a new phone because she lost her old one.
6. Because it is snowing, we will stay home today.
7. Dani and Darnell joined the chess club.
8. Duncan loves dancing in musicals.
9. Instead of cleaning my room, I played video games.
10. As soon as the sun rises, we can take a walk, and our dogs will accompany us.

Types of Sentences

Sentence structures.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Whenever the bell rings, everyone files into the cafeteria, and the workers assemble food trays.

compound-complex

2. The mail won't come on Sunday, so you will have to wait for Monday.

compound

3. My family is running late; even if we were ready, we still don't have a present for the party.

compound-complex

4. After Allison cleaned her room, her mom gave her spending money, and she went to eat with friends.

compound-complex

5. Ashley bought a new phone because she lost her old one.

complex

6. Because it is snowing, we will stay home today.

complex

7. Dani and Darnell joined the chess club.

simple

8. Duncan loves dancing in musicals.

simple

9. Instead of cleaning my room, I played video games.

simple

10. As soon as the sun rises, we can take a walk, and our dogs will accompany us.

compound-complex

Types of Sentences

Sentence structures.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Coby bought flowers, and Lindsey vacuumed so that the house would smell nice.
2. Jack will drive when his permit is official.
3. Olivia walked to the park while she watched for her mom.
4. Lenore drank a coffee and ate a croissant.
5. Ashley, who has terrible allergies, always packs medicine.
6. Lindy orders soup whenever it is cold outside.
7. The fundraiser that started in April raised thousands of dollars.
8. The toddler fussed for his milk.
9. Hailey ate candy, and her stomach hurt later.
10. I am hungry, but I can't decide what to order!

Types of Sentences

Sentence structures.

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Coby bought flowers, and Lindsey vacuumed so that the house would smell nice.

compound-complex

2. Jack will drive when his permit is official.

complex

3. Olivia walked to the park while she watched for her mom.

complex

4. Lenore drank a coffee and ate a croissant.

simple

5. Ashley, who has terrible allergies, always packs medicine.

complex

6. Lindy orders soup whenever it is cold outside.

complex

7. The fundraiser that started in April raised thousands of dollars.

complex

8. The toddler fussed for his milk.

simple

9. Hailey ate candy, and her stomach hurt later.

compound

10. I am hungry, but I can't decide what to order!

compound

Types of Sentences

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Even though I was late for work, I calmly watched the long line of cars and moved slowly toward the exit.
2. Although the weather station called for rain, my grandma watered the flowers, and my grandpa went on a picnic.
3. Flowers and chocolates are popular gifts, but they are impractical.
4. After the dentist appointment, the family went to dinner.
5. Our garage sale was a success; we made a few hundred dollars.
6. The neighbors planned a block party because they wanted to meet new people.
7. Every weekend my mom has a list of chores for my brother and me, and we must complete the list.
8. For my sixteenth birthday, my parents have promised to buy me my own computer.
9. My dog ran away last night and when he came home with muddy paws, my dad gave him a bath.
10. The piano and trumpet combined into a beautiful melody.

Types of Sentences

Directions: Decide if each sentence is simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Even though I was late for work, I calmly watched the long line of cars and moved slowly toward the exit.

complex

2. Although the weather station called for rain, my grandma watered the flowers, and my grandpa went on a picnic.

compound-complex

3. Flowers and chocolates are popular gifts, but they are impractical.

compound

4. After the dentist appointment, the family went to dinner.

simple

5. Our garage sale was a success; we made a few hundred dollars.

compound

6. The neighbors planned a block party because they wanted to meet new people.

complex

7. Every weekend my mom has a list of chores for my brother and me, and we must complete the list.

compound

8. For my sixteenth birthday, my parents have promised to buy me my own computer.

simple

9. My dog ran away last night and when he came home with muddy paws, my dad gave him a bath.

compound-complex

10. The piano and trumpet combined into a beautiful melody.

simple

Types of Sentences

Directions: Identify each sentence as simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. People often discuss what their favorite season is; a beloved season normally connects to a person's activities.
2. Certain activities lend themselves to a particular season.
3. Unless swimming at an indoor pool, people who prefer swimming name summer as their favorite.
4. If bonfires and comfy sweatshirts call your name, fall may be your beloved season.
5. A liking of big sweaters, holiday spirit, and hot cocoa lends itself to winter as a favorite.
6. Spring may be your favorite season if you enjoy the promise of growth and rainy days.
7. Some people enjoy mild temperatures, and they equally look forward to spring and fall.
8. People with allergies find relief during the summer and winter.
9. Other people worry more about their wardrobe than their activities; each season brings its own requirements, and many people enjoy the flexible wardrobe.
10. The luckiest people find pleasure in the wonders each season brings; however, these people are rarities!

Types of Sentences

Directions: Identify each sentence as simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. People often discuss what their favorite season is; a beloved season normally connects to a person's activities.

compound-complex

2. Certain activities lend themselves to a particular season.

simple

3. Unless swimming at an indoor pool, people who prefer swimming name summer as their favorite.

complex

4. If bonfires and comfy sweatshirts call your name, fall may be your beloved season.

complex

5. A liking of big sweaters, holiday spirit, and hot cocoa lends itself to winter as a favorite.

simple

6. Spring may be your favorite season if you enjoy the promise of growth and rainy days.

complex

7. Some people enjoy mild temperatures, and they equally look forward to spring and fall.

compound

8. People with allergies find relief during the summer and winter.

simple

9. Other people worry more about their wardrobe than their activities; each season brings its own requirements, and many people enjoy the flexible wardrobe.

compound

10. The luckiest people find pleasure in the wonders each season brings; however, these people are rarities!

compound-complex ("each season brings" has an implied "that" and is a dependent clause)