

verbals

Thank-you for downloading this product. These station activities are intended to provide extra practice opportunities. These activities are part of a bundle that include extra information with a presentation, a workbook, etc. You can receive a refund on this product if you purchase that bundle, the Verbal Bundle. Email me both TpT receipts, and I will start a refund for you: lauralee@languageartsclassroom.com

I have many tips and ideas for teaching grammar. Some of these blog posts and activities might help you. If you want the digital version, download it here.

Thanks for inviting me into your classroom,

Lauralee

Verbal Station 1

Directions: On your paper, write the infinitives from the following sentences.

1. For dinner, I attempted to grill.
2. To focus, think of your ultimate goal.
3. Those dishes are the ones to wash.
4. To read is a brain booster.

Verbal Station 2

Directions: On your paper, write the gerunds (phrases) from the following sentences.

5. Eating candy on Halloween is a tradition.

6. Making hot chocolate is a holiday treat.

7. Cooper loves taking notes for his coach.

8. Buying new jeans is my goal for the day.

Verbal Station 3

Directions: On your paper, write the participles (phrases) from the following sentences.

9. Breaking the glass, the toddler cried in fear.

10. Jaycie, playing on my phone, smiled sheepishly.

11. Writing on the board, the teacher did not see the paper airplane.

12. The disgusted look on my brother's face was hilarious.

Verbal Station

Directions: On your paper, write the infinitives from the following sentences.

13. The toddler struggles to sit.

14. To exercise, walk during lunch.

15. Those are the articles to read.

16. To write is a powerful activity.

Verbal Station 5

Directions: On your paper, write the gerunds (phrases) from the following sentences.

17. Drinking water helps your body.

18. My hands hurt from typing a paper.

19. Will you help me by opening the door?

20. Sleeping on the couch hurts my neck.

Verbal Station 6

Directions: On your paper, write the participles (phrases) from the following sentences.

21. Looking in the window, the girl saw her dog.

22. LaJon took a gardening class.

23. Wearing a dress, the toddler twirled in circles.

24. The organized man knew where the binder was.

Verbal Station 7

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

25. Swimming at the pool is my favorite summer activity.

26. My dream is to own a restaurant.

27. Beth and Brittany went shopping at the new mall.

28. Coal emitting plants have certain environmental regulations.

Verbal Station 8

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

29. Eating at the counter, George could easily see the restaurant's front door.

30. To protect their yard, my grandparents installed a fence.

31. Sleeping on the couch, Allyn awoke to dinner.

32. Adding eggshells to soil nourishes tomato plants.

Verbal Station 9

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

33. Shopping for school supplies, Tyler saw several classmates.

34. Driving a car is a great responsibility.

35. Jamie wanted to make a scrapbook of her senior year.

36. Leslie, given another chance, completed the project.

Verbal Station 10

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

37. Caroline enjoys running early in the morning.

38. Walking and drinking water, Matt spilled on himself.

39. Carson left the bank without signing the papers.

40. Watching baseball with my dad completes summer vacation.

Verbal Station 11

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

41. Spreading the cheese, Char finished the pizza.

42. Passing this test is my goal.

43. To leave early would be rude.

44. To keep the baby quiet, play soothing music.

Verbal Station 12

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

45. Liam has promised to sing.

46. Chad has to iron his pants.

47. Playing truth-or-dare is not allowed in the pond.

48. Thrilled, Jason opened his birthday gifts.

Verbal Station 13

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

49. Rachel and Lily picked up the shattered pieces.

50. Our chore is to sweep.

51. The textured wood should dry overnight.

52. Abi and Sam sent the dog inside to rest.

Verbal Station 124

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

53. Those pieces are starting to crack.

54. George took time off to vacation with family.

55. Juan, stumbling in the front door, collapsed in a chair.

56. Keeping track of grades is important.

Verbal Station 15

Directions: On your paper, write the verbal or verbal phrase from the following sentences. Then, write the type of verbal: infinitive, gerund, or participle.

57. The newly painted living room looks spectacular.

58. Jenna plans to stay late.

59. Writing an email, Augie looked up from the computer screen.

60. Levon, changing his shirt, hurried before track practice.

Name: _____

Verbals Stations: Answer Sheet

1. _____

11. _____

2. _____

12. _____

3. _____

13. _____

4. _____

14. _____

5. _____

15. _____

6. _____

16. _____

7. _____

17. _____

8. _____

18. _____

9. _____

19. _____

10. _____

20. _____

Name: _____

Verbals Stations: Answer Sheet

21. _____

31. _____

22. _____

32. _____

23. _____

33. _____

24. _____

34. _____

25. _____

35. _____

26. _____

36. _____

27. _____

37. _____

28. _____

38. _____

29. _____

39. _____

30. _____

40. _____

Name: _____

Verbals Stations: Answer Sheet

41. _____

51. _____

42. _____

52. _____

43. _____

53. _____

44. _____

54. _____

45. _____

55. _____

46. _____

56. _____

47. _____

57. _____

48. _____

58. _____

49. _____

59. _____

50. _____

60. _____

Verbal Phrases: Station Work

Note: I have underlined phrases where applicable. Please differentiate and choose what will best help your students... finding the verbal or the verbal phrase.

Station One: Infinitives

1. For dinner, I attempted to grill.
2. To focus, think of your ultimate goal.
3. Those dishes are the ones to wash.
4. To read is a brain booster.

Station Two: Gerunds

5. Eating candy on Halloween is a tradition.
6. Making hot chocolate is a holiday treat.
7. Cooper loves taking notes for his coach.
8. Buying new jeans is my goal for the day.

Station Three: Participles

9. Breaking the glass, the toddler cried in fear.
10. Jaycie, playing on my phone, smiled sheepishly.
11. Writing on the board, the teacher did not see the paper airplane.
12. The disgusted look on my brother's face was hilarious.

Station Four: Infinitives

13. The toddler struggles to sit.
14. To exercise, walk during lunch.
15. Those are the articles to read.
16. To write is a powerful activity.

Station Five: Gerunds

17. Drinking water helps your body.
18. My hands hurt from typing a paper.
19. Will you help me by opening the door?
20. Sleeping on the couch hurts my neck.

Station Six: Participles

21. Looking in the window, the girl saw her dog.
22. LaJon took a gardening class.
23. Wearing a dress, the toddler twirled in circles.
24. The organized man knew where the binder was.

Station Seven:

25. Swimming at the pool is my favorite summer activity. gerund
26. My dream is to own a restaurant. infinitive
27. Beth and Brittany went shopping at the new mall. gerund
28. Coal emitting plants have certain environmental regulations. participle

Station Eight:

29. Eating at the counter, George could easily see the restaurant's front door. participle
30. To protect their yard, my grandparents installed a fence. infinitive
31. Sleeping on the couch, Allyn awoke to dinner. participle
32. Adding eggshells to soil nourishes tomato plants. gerund

Station Nine:

33. Shopping for school supplies, Tyler saw several classmates. participle
34. Driving a car is a great responsibility. gerund
35. Jamie wanted to make a scrapbook of her senior year. infinitive
36. Leslie, given another chance, completed the project. participle

Station Ten:

37. Caroline enjoys running early in the morning. gerund
38. Walking and drinking water, Matt spilled on himself. participle
39. Carson left the bank without signing the papers. gerund
40. Watching baseball with my dad completes summer vacation. gerund

Station Eleven

41. Spreading the cheese, Char finished the pizza. participle
42. Passing this test is my goal. gerund
43. To leave early would be rude. infinitive
44. To keep the baby quiet, play soothing music. infinitive

Station Twelve

45. Liam has promised to sing. infinitive
46. Chad has to iron his pants. infinitive
47. Playing truth-or-dare is not allowed in the pond. gerund
48. Thrilled, Jason opened his birthday gifts. participle

Station Thirteen

49. Rachel and Lily picked up the shattered pieces. participle
50. Our chore is to sweep. infinitive
51. The textured wood should dry overnight. participle
52. Abi and Sam sent the dog inside to rest. infinitive

Station Fourteen

53. Those pieces are starting to crack. infinitive
54. George took time off to vacation with family. infinitive
55. Juan, stumbling in the front door, collapsed in a chair. participle
56. Keeping track of grades is important. gerund

Station Fifteen

57. The newly painted living room looks spectacular. participle
58. Jenna plans to stay late. infinitive
59. Writing an email, Augie looked up from the computer screen. participle
60. Levon, changing his shirt, hurried before track practice. participle